Treasurer:	Tim Wall reported $3029.39 in Heritage Bank Checking
Business Advisory:	No report
Newsletter:	Will come out in early March. Any articles or ideas should be directed to Darla Handran: dhandran@mt.gov or 377-3313. Steve Olson suggested a topic from the Feb 28 th issue of the Billings Gazette talking about the cost of negativity in the workplace. The Chad Foster breakfast will be in this newsletter, as well as a heads up that John Andrew will be coming to Glendive in June.

OLD BUSINESS

Career Connections:	Cheryl Kolberg reported current numbers, explained how the Day will go and the need for volunteers, and accepted sign-ups. Career Connections Day with Chad Foster will happen on April 20, so there is still plenty of time to sign up for a duty. Call Job Service 377-3314 or Cheryl 377-9409.
Wage & Hour Seminar	John Andrew will be coming to Glendive on June 8 th for a 3.5 hour presentation in the morning. The fine details have not been worked out yet. If there are requests or suggestions, please contact a member of the Seminar Subcommittee (Sandi, Bill, Cindy or Lonnie). John will talk about the new overtime regs as well as a variety of wage and hour topics.

Foster Breakfast	JSEC has secured Chad Foster for a breakfast meeting prior to beginning Career Connection activities on April 20 th . This is the “kickoff” for the Day. The breakfast will be held at the Twilite. Cindy Berg has secured the venue and is working on the menu and/or the caterer. The JSEC agreed that $25 per person will be charged. Marketing was discussed. The means will include Channel 2 on Mid-Rivers cable, Ranger, Glendive Broadcasting, Chamber’s email list, various marquees around town, the newsletter ASAP and a separate mailer sent around April 1 st . And don’t forget, members, to personally invite people to attend.
Scholarship	The deadline is April 1 st , so nothing to report at this time.
State Meeting	May 23, 24, 25. Good training and networking opportunity, and it’s only 2.5 hours away this year!

NEW BUSINESS

Hub Community	Dr. Tony Rudback has presented the idea of Glendive becoming a hub community in our fair city at least twice. He has an assistance located in Sidney now, Julie Dassinger, and she would be available to present to the JSEC on this topic. JSEC agreed to have Ms. Dassinger come to the May meeting. Lonnie will ask Peg about contacting her.
Announcements	Steve Olson reported there are a couple of pieces of legislation that may affect Job Service. He is keeping close tabs on them and will keep JSEC abreast of what is happening with these bills.

Action Items:	Lonnie/Darla: Publish and send newsletter ASAP Seminar Committee: In cooperation with Peg and Cheryl plan and execute marketing for the Chad Foster breakfast Seminar Committee: Set details on John Andrew seminar June 8th Steve: Research opportunity for future Open House or other form of Job Service publicity to assist employers in recognizing the value and availability of service provided within their community.
